$55, includes snacks and light lunch

(supply list will be given when deposit is received)

Registration 8:30am

Workshop 9:00am-4:00pm

Virginia Cottage, Earlham College

Richmond, IN

This one-day workshop is designed to implement creative ways of encountering the soul's inner journey through art. Painting, creative writing and collage will be explored in this experiential adventure. Other components, such as music, meditation, and sharing, will be included to enhance the creative process and will play a significant role, as we examine different ways of self-expression. No artistic experience or talent is necessary.

About the Presenter: Rosie is an award-winning artist. She graduated from University of Dayton with degrees in Art and Psychology. She also has an Associates degree from Sinclair Community College in Mental Health Technology. She is known nationally and internationally having exhibited her work in Yamagata Town and Echizen, Japan; Memphis, Anchorage, Atlanta, New York, San Francisco, Dayton, Columbus and Cincinnati.
